

John Long, MS, MA

Location: Newark, DE

Executive Vice President and COO | University of Delaware

John Long brings extensive leadership experience in operations and infrastructure, previously serving as COO at the University of South Florida, where he spearheaded major public-private partnerships and campus developments. A retired U.S. Air Force officer, he managed high-level logistical operations, including Air Force One support. John holds advanced degrees in human resource management and strategic studies and has completed leadership training at Harvard University.